Day 2 Lewa Wildlife Conservancy

Fly to the Lewa Wildlife Conservancy, home of big cats, elephants and endangered black rhinos. Your tented camp is tucked into the Northern Frontier District, in a private wildlife conservancy and rhino sanctuary. Take to the bush this afternoon, watching closely for indigenous northern species, such as the beisa oryx; Somali ostrich; reticulated giraffe; Grevy's zebra; and the unusual long-necked gerenuk, which stands on its hind legs to feed. Look, too, for Grant's gazelle, dik-dik, eland and impala as they, along with majestic leopard and lion, roam the vast landscape. After dinner, sleep securely in elegantly appointed tents, enveloped by the sounds of the African night.
