

ITINERARY

Day 1

Depart from Bangkok and settle into your private cabin as the train rolls through Bangkok City to countryside.

Dinner is served in one of the luxurious dining cars.

Afterwards, head to the Bar Car to relax with fellow travelers or retire to your cosy converted cabin.

Day 2

After breakfast, disembark at the River Kwai Bridge station for a leisurely cruise along the river guided by a local historian.

Later in the morning, join a visit to an evocative war museum and optional war cemetery.

Return to the train and look forward to an exceptional lunch and dinner.

Day 3

Spend the morning watching the changing scenery with breakfast in bed as the train travels through Malaysia.

After brunch, arrive at Kuala Kangsar. Disembark for a tour of the grand Ubudiah Mosque, the Royal Museum of Perak and the Sultan Shah Gallery.

Rejoin the train for a refreshing cocktail accompanied by live piano music before a glamorous final dinner on board.

Day 4

Arrive in Singapore for your onward travel arrangements.
